

Dear Jadie and Andrew,

As two of the privileged guests at Sarah Eio and Jeffrey Swickson's wedding (we are neighbors of Jenny and Peter and also good friends of Mike), we wanted to thank you for making magic last Sunday.

It is impossible to name all the special touches: the warming fires outside and in, the many many flowers and candles at every turn, the delicious food beautifully presented, and so much more added up to that incredible ambience.

It is a lucky couple, indeed, who can begin their lives together with a celebration at the beautiful Lord Thompson Manor. We think you planned and executed the event to perfection. Had we had a chance to sign a guest book, one entry would have read: Best wedding ever! With sincere thanks and best regards,

Lib and Hans Hen
